

Our Mission

FDHS is a non-profit, compassionate, animal-advocacy organization established in 1966 to provide the Defiance area community with resources to:

- Rescue, rehabilitate, and rehome abused, neglected, or unwanted animals.
- Develop and administer programs designed to educate the community about responsible pet ownership.
- Aggressively control animal abuse and overpopulation.

About Us

- FDHS is a private, non-profit organization supported by donations from private individuals, businesses, grants, and fees from services provided.
- Fort Defiance Humane Society serves the 39,000 citizens of Defiance County and the surrounding areas.
- In 2018, Fort Defiance Humane Society took in over 750 animals.
- FDHS employs the area's only Humane Agent who responded to 180 calls of potential abuse/neglect in 2018, a 50% increase over 2017.
